

Transformations

Student e-journal of BESA

Contents

Editorial Will Curtis	1
Teaching Histories: Reflexivity, National Anxieties and the Neoliberal Turn Andrew Hay	2-15
Exploring the experiences of a white, working class boy through the use of a narrative methodology Rachel Eileen Fenlon	16-26
A Critical Analysis of the Role of Spirituality within the Early Years Curriculum Adele Lunn	27-41
The Existence of a Hidden Curriculum in Sex and Relationships Education in Secondary Schools Bethany Smith	42-55
A qualitative study into the experiences of Higher Education for learners who are visually impaired Harriet Dunn	56-73
Am I Engaged with Mathematics? A Child's Perspective! Paul Benjamin Hobson	74-86
Gender Differences in Mathematics Ability at an Undergraduate Level Laura Payne	87-102
Undergraduate Business students' pedagogical use of ICT: The case of Pentecost University College Charles Buabeng-Andoh and Seth Agyekum	103-114
'A small scale survey assessing the impact of mentoring perspectives on mentoring schemes within primary and secondary schools.' Laura Brennan	115-124